

Barbara Canton-Jackson

For over a generation Barbara Canton-Jackson was a champion or near-champion 1-wall player in both singles and doubles.

Her power and drive made her a formidable opponent in every match she ever played. She won the USHA National Singles championship in 1993 and '94. With perennial partner and lifelong friend Dori Ten, she won five USHA National Doubles titles and one World's title (2000). On five other occasions Barbara and Dori were National Doubles runners-up. And they were World's runners-up in 1997. In 2000 Barbara placed second in World's 1-Wall competition. At this writing she remains a dangerous doubles opponent to women twenty years her junior.
