

Karen McConney

PHOTOGRAPHS
TO FOLLOW

Karen McConney was a powerful figure in the world of women's 1-wall.

In 1996 she won the National USHA Singles Championship, and was USHA National Singles Runner-up the following two years. In '95 and '98 she won the National USHA Doubles 1-Wall, and she was runner-up in that event four times: 1994, '96, '97, 2007.

She competed in big blue in the World's events. In 1997 and 2012 she was World's Big Blue Doubles Champion. And in 2000 and 2009 she was World's Big Blue Singles Champion. She was also World's Big Blue Runner-up in 2000.