

Bill Lauro

From 1933, when Bill Lauro's name began to appear in handball's statistics as a champion, until 1959, Lauro was among the best 4-wall players of the game.

Incredible longevity marked this man's handball career. In '33 he was the New York State AAU 4-wall Singles Champion, a title he won in '34, '42, '43, and '44. From 1956-'59 he was YMCA New York State Singles Champion, and in '59 he added the doubles crown as well.
