

Tom Cicolella

Tom was a top New York 4-wall singles player in the 1980's.

He proved that by winning many tournaments around the state, among them the Albany open four straight years, from 1987 to 1990. In '91 he entered the Albany Masters Singles, and he won that as well. During his years of competing at Albany, the tournament was filled with the very best players in the northeast.

