

Hy Cohen

Hy was the Vice President and General Manager of Brighton Beach Baths in Brooklyn.

He ran the day to day operations from the 1960's until the Baths closed in 1997. A friend of handball, Hy permitted a great many tournaments and special events to be organized and run in the Baths. He was aware of the importance of the sport of handball to the local community, and of the attention the sport brought to the Baths.