

Frank “Lefty” Coyle * - 1961

Groomed at the NYAC, Frank “Lefty” Coyle used a slow, control game to subdue his power-hitting rivals.

Although a strong singles player, Coyle’s specialty was doubles. The National 4-Wall Singles Champion in 1944, he won National 4-Wall doubles titles on five occasions: 1938, ’39, ’41, ’46, and ’51. In ’51 he added a National 3-wall Doubles Championship to his collection.

