

Mayer Selbst

strong open player in the 1950's, Meyer excelled as a masters player winning four national doubles masters championships (1962, 1964, 1966 and 1967).

He also placed second in the master doubles in 1963 and 1964. He was best known for his tremendous hook serves. He was a true gentleman on and off the court. Meyer represented the Hebrew Educational Society in his early playing days.

PLAYERS OF DISTINCTION