

Harry Goldstein

Tabbed by many, including Charlie Danilczyk, as the greatest 1-waller ever, Goldstein was National AAU Singles Champion in 1934 and 1937.

In '37, '38, and '39 he was champion in doubles, earning the National AAU Doubles crown in each of those years.

In '36 he was National AAU Doubles Runner-up.

He was also a singles semi-finalist in the National events of '35, '36, and '37, and a National Doubles semi-finalist as early as 1933.
