

Jack Londin

A great 1-wall player of the 1930's through the early '40's, Londin won the National AAU Singles title in 1935, defeating, among others, the great Harry Goldstein in the semis.

In 1933, Jack teamed with Sy Alexander to win the National AAU Doubles. Londin was a high place finisher (semis and above) a total of nine times in national play in a five year period. He represented the Trinity Club.
