

Ugo Bontempo

For many years, from the 1960's to the 1980's, Ugo contributed to one wall handball by helping to organize and run numerous handball tournaments.

A lifelong opera aficionado, Ugo added flair to the handball scene, primarily at the West 5th Street handball courts in Coney Island. He was a referee in many of the top matches of the 1960's and early '70's.
