

Anna Calderon* - 2013

Anna was the first woman inducted into the USHA National Hall of Fame, who played mainly 1-wall.

In the early part of her career, she was literally unbeatable. In a head-on 1-wall match, she even defeated the fabulous Rosemary Bellini. Once she played in a men's "B" tournament, and lost by only five points in the quarter-finals, after defeating her first two opponents. After a fifteen year hiatus from handball, during which time she became a top-notch racquetball player, she returned to handball to place high in the National 1 Wall Singles, and to win three National 1-Wall Doubles crowns.
