

Dori Ten

At this writing Dori Ten, married to National hall of Famer Al Apuzzi, continues to play in National handball events. She was one of the best 1-wall female players for over a generation.

In 1991 she was runner-up in National USHA Singles, her very first high place finish. The very next year she was Champion. From then she won six additional National titles in singles and double. Her longtime partner (and friend), Barbara Canton-Jackson, shared in all her doubles glory. In 2000 Dori and Barbara won the World's Doubles Championship. Usually when Dori did not place first in the tournament, she was no lower than second. She garnered ten runner-up trophies.
