

Jim Jacobs* - 1972

AND STILL CHAMP . . . Jimmy Jacobs displays hard earned three-wall awards.

Tabbed by the USHA as the “Greatest Handball Player of the Generation,” Jim Jacobs was a complete handball player with enviable skills in every department needed by a champion.

Fleetness of foot, power, control, endurance, and ambidexterity added to pure craft made him invincible in both 4-wall singles and doubles. Jim also won three 3-Wall National Singles titles, and he made a brief foray into the world of 1-wall. There he advanced once to the semi-finals of National 1-Wall Doubles while partnered with Steve Sandler.
